Chirac • FRANCE
Chirac is the self ordained champion of sustainable development. Sustained radioactivity from nuclear waste is going to outlast him a long long time.

Berlusconi • ITALY
Culture used to celebrate the splendour of human creativity. Now it is a commodity measured by its market value. Once upon a time there was the Sistine Chapel. Now there is Reality TV.

Chrétien • CANADA
Genetically modified foodstuffs are marketed as a revolution that can eradicate world hunger. The danger to health or biodiversity must not be allowed to threaten multinational profits!

Blair • UK
War in Iraq is built upon a sound business plan.
1 - break everything.
2 - put everything back together again.
3 - make them pay for it all with their oil.

Bush • USA
The only freedom which is truly protected is that of free enterprise. The whole world has the right to the American Way of Life - as long as it is bought from Microsoft, Monsanto or McDoc.

Schöder • GERMANY
Industrial patents must be protected. It is the life-blood of business. If patents are to be sacrificed to people in Africa, treatments to save who will come, pensate the loss in revenue?

Putin • RUSSIA
Now here is an excellent pupil, no need to teach him about the superiority of a free market economy! Others die young from tuberculosis, or get shot by the mafia.

Kozumi • JAPAN
Fish is good for your health. Intensive fishing has been taken from the ocean? Perhaps there'll be a surplus of British beer? ...
